

Oodles of Noodles

I'll take noodles for lunch,
Some hot noodles with tea.
Those slippery noodles
Feel just right to me.

How good they smell
With a sauce full of spice.
The scent tickles my nose,
The warm steam feels so nice!

A red bowl filled to the top
Makes me want to dive right in.
Noodles swimming in my soup,
My tummy shouts, "Let's begin!"

I slurp those noodles down.
They sound splashy and wet.
Mom asks from the stove,
"Is that bowl empty yet?"

I think noodles taste great!
A little salty, a little sweet.
I can't wait until it's time
For my next tasty noodle treat.
