Tiger and the Big Wind

An African Tale

One year, there was very little food in the forest. Only one pear tree made fruit, but Tiger sat under that tree. He did not allow anyone else to come near. Tiger enjoyed the juicy pears, while the other animals in the forest watched. The animals thought this wasn't fair. They called a meeting and asked Rabbit what to do. Rabbit gave the animals instructions and told everyone to hide. Then he got a big rope and went to Tiger.

"Tiger! Tiger!" he shouted, "A big wind is coming!" Just then, all the animals started making wind noises. The birds flapped their wings. The monkeys, along with other animals, broke twigs and shook the trees.

"Rabbit! Rabbit!" shouted Tiger, "You have string! Tie me down! I don't want to be blown off the earth!"

So, Rabbit tied Tiger to a tree at the far end of the forest. Then all the animals came out of hiding and feasted on the juicy pears.
